

Jan - March 2023,

3:00-4:30pm (flexible arrival/departure),

grades 6 – 12

A light snack will be provided at each meeting!

Please RSVP on Sunday or earlier to sign up for these special skills and interest explorations by date – sign up for all or just one! Just register for any dates here: RSVP (this helps with student arrival, leader count, snack, and activity supplies). For questions, tortlieb@fumcnorthville.org

Life Hacks Options include-

1. Academic support: available EVERY TUESDAY, led by Debbie Prasad Academics: This is designed to meet YOUR needs. In addition to specific school subjects—we can help with:

- Review of your previous exams/quizzes to help you understand what you might have missed (so you do better in the future)
- Building a study schedule for upcoming quizzes/exams (I know---there is SOOO much to do—and so little time to study!!)
- Test taking strategies, test anxiety issues
- Helping you to develop specific strategies related to issues/concerns/problems you may be experiencing related to a particular class, teacher, upcoming assignment, or test

2. Life skills/Hobby lessons: available by date and led by Tracy O. & Elena G. If we don't finish a project, we can bump it to two weeks, and reschedule other projects:

- Jan 17th – Random Acts of Kindness (you'll have some take aways to share)
- Jan 24th- Cooking: Baking Basics (you'll make a sweet treat)
- Jan 31st- Hand Crafted Cards (a special Valentine theme)
- Feb 7th- Power Tools: The Sewing Machine (mini project to take home)
- No meeting Feb 14
- Feb 21- Candle Pouring (take home a small, scented candle)
- Feb 28- Cooking: Knife Skills (chopping & more, we'll make our snack!)
- No Meeting March 7- Hospitality week, consider volunteering!
- March 14- Mosaic art (design, tiles, set, grout, etc.)

3. Peer Ministry basic training (4 parts) Likely starting after March 14. Available to those that sign up by FEB 28. Training/meeting dates will be selected based on schedules of those that will participate.